

As part of the No Child Left Behind year of action, in February 2019 we will be looking at relationships and how having healthy, positive relationships can help young people to thrive.

No Child Left Behind and Gloucestershire Domestic Abuse Support Service (GDASS) would therefore like to invite you to attend :

FREE Domestic Abuse training for professionals working with children and young people.

The aim is to give a brief overview of domestic abuse for anyone who works with young people. This workshop aims to make participants more aware of what domestic abuse is, the impact it has on young people and what GDASS as an organisation offer. This course will also be run with Lisa Woodward who works with young people who are experiencing high risk domestic abuse.

We are running 4 sessions on Tuesday 5th February with space for 20 professionals on each.
